Subject: Textile Trade fairs in New York in 2010

Participation in international trade fairs introduces products of an exporter to at least hundreds of sourcing agents, retailers, wholesalers etc., in just 3 days which is simply unimaginable in any other form of business contact. Though, the response and experience for each exporter varies from fair to fair but in given circumstances, when it is really difficult for Pakistani businessmen to travel to U.S. and vice versa, participation in trade fair provides a wonderful opportunity for a direct contact with importers.

2. A list containing some basic information about few major textile trade fairs scheduled to be held in and around New York is attached for reference. I would encourage the exporters to attend the fairs on regular basis to find new customers in U.S. who are otherwise also eager to find new sources due to price hike in China.

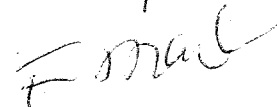

3. You are requested to circulate this information among your members. Please feel free to contact the Commercial section, New York if anyone wants to attend any fair or needs any additional market information about U.S.

Yours sincerely,
